MOTHERS ARE HONORED AT ANNUAL RITES

Rev. Herman G. Stuempfle, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, told a Mother's Day observance audience Sunday evening at the Elks' Home that Mother's Day was also the last day of Christian Family Week, and described the Christian home as the "fortress of life."

He called the home "the most important place in the human life," and compared the "fortress of life" to an ancient European fortress. "Like a medieval castle, the home needs strong walls for protection. In the Christian home, the walls are love, which can protect the weary man from the troubles of the world outside, and enable him to renew his strength.

"And just as the ancient fortress was built near a spring, for sustenance, so in the Christian home religious faith is necessary. Religion must be practiced, and not merely accepted. Yet many homes have cut out even the saying of

DRIVER IN FATAL ACCIDENT MUST PAY ADAMS $150

David J. O'Keefe, 19, 941 E. Walnut St, Hanover, told the Adams County court this morning, through his attorney, that he was driving his car "because his girl friend was fearful of the traffic" when his car struck a motorcycyle near Cross Keys April 29 and fatally injured Richard C. Smith, 25 Ridge Ave., Hanover.

O'Keefe was given a suspended jail sentence by the court on a charge of driving after his operator's license had been suspended. He was ordered to pay $150 for the use of the county and costs.

District Attorney Daniel E Teeter said that there is a possibilty of additional charges being laid in connection with the fatal accident following a coroner's inquest. No date has been set for the inquest pending recovery of a material witness from injuries received in the accident, Mr. Teeter said.

Two Brothers Jailed

O'Keefe had been on bail pending sentence on the charge since April 30. He had been lodged in jail immediately after the accident. Police at that time said O'Keefe was driving west 120 feet east of Cross Keys when his car struck the back of a motorcycle also being driven west, and operated by Robert S. Slothour, 22, 1 Commerce St., Hanover, with Smith as a passenger. Slothour suffered a fractured leg. Smith had a fractured skull. He died at the Hanover Hospital about an hour after the accident.

Attorney Bulleit said this morning in court that O'Keefe's girl friend had driven the car to a speedway, but that on the return trip had become fearful of the heavy traffic and O'Keefe had taken the wheel.

Two Union Bridge brothers, Norman Leroy Wetzel and Donald Milton Wetzel, were sentenced to three months in the Adams County jail this morning or charges of larceny of hub caps off cars in Gettysburg.

Issue Support Order

Norman Wetzel's sentence begins May 6, date of his original incarceration. Donald Wetzel's begins from May 7 when he was arrested in Westminster.

Russell Black, Chambersburg St., was directed to pay $10 per week on a support order following an appearance in court today.

Argument was begun shortly before noon on a charge of trespassing on posted land brought by Russell H. Dresher against Anthony Misiti and John Sponseller, both of Hanover. The men are accused of trespassing on a lane of property

JUDGE SHEELY'S RULING UPHELD BY STATE COURT

Judge W. C. Sheely's order in connection with counter suits brought by Joseph H. Ratcliff, Lawrence N. Yost Jr., Sterling and Albert Myers and Bryant Air Conditioning Corporation following an accident at East Berlin has been upheld by a majority of the State Supreme Court.

Notice of the Supreme Court's decision reached here Saturday. Signed by Judge Horace Stern the majority on the appeal from the order of the Adams County Court stated: "The order of the court denying the motion of the additional defendants for judgment notwithstanding the verdict against the original defendants is affirmed. The order of the court granting a new trial in which the issue shall be limited to the liability of the original defendants in conjunction with that of the additional defendants for the happening of the accident, is affirmed.

"In these proceedings, initially instituted to recover damages arising from a right angle collision between two automobiles, the verdict of the jury has brought about an illogical and therefore untenable result," Judge Stern's opinion held.

Complicated Proceedings

The accident occurred in East Berlin when Lawrence Yost was driving on Route 194 and Sterling Myers, of Spring Grove R. D., was driving on Rt. 234. The crash occurred at the intersection. A traffic light was not operating on Yost's side at the time of the crash.

Ratcliff, a passenger in Yost's car, sued Sterling Myers and his father, Albert Myers, on whose business Sterling was driving at the time, for damages. The Myerses brought in Government Urges More Delay In Salk Vaccination Program In U.S. Pending New Checks

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has urged that the nation's polio vaccination program be held up for at least a few more days while federal health authorities make a new safety check.

Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele, announcing this yesterday, expressed hope a plant-by-plant check of vaccine manufacturers would permit resumption of the program by the end oof this week.

He voiced confidence that five laboratories now turning out the Salk serum would get a complete bill of health. And he said he hoped the first held-up batches of vaccine would be cleared quickly for public use.

Pronounced Safe

Scheele, head of the U. S. Public Health Service, likewise pronounced the vaccine every bit as safe and effective as originally announced.

He assured parents whose children have been vaccinated that "in the very best judgment of the public health service, they have no cause for alarm."

Most states seemed disposed to follow Scheele's recommendation. New Jersey and Connecticut, among others, had vaccine supplies ready for the start of shots today, but called a halt. Indiana's health commissioner first said he saw no reason for delay, but later recommended postponement.

Michigan Goes Ahead

Many states had no choice. They lacked sufficient vaccine.

But in Michigan, Health Commissioner Albert Heustis said that state's program will continue un-

1,000 BATTLE BIG FIRE NEAR MT. HOLLY SPGS. FOR NINE HOURS

An estimated 1,000 firemen and volunteers, including members of the Bendersville and York Springs Fire Departments, took part Sunday afternoon in battling an estimated 350-acre fire on Trent Hill, near Mt. Holly Springs.

The fire, raging through heavy timber between Routes 34 and 94, from Hunter's Run to the Oxford Road, for nine hours, was brought under control about 7 o'clock Sunday night, an estimated nine hours after it started.

Bendersville sent two pieces of equipment about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with one engine returning at 4:30 and the other about 6:30 o'clock. York Springs, called at about 1:30, responded with two engines. The York Springs firemen remained on duty until nearly 8 o'clock.

Homes Threatened

Cumberland County threw its entire Civil Defense organization into the battle against the blaze which threatened a number of homes in the area. Blasting operations were employed and backfires started when the flames threatened to leap the Mt. Holly-York Springs road after burning down the side of the mountain.

Firemen responded from the two Adams County towns, from Carlisle, from Mt. Holly Springs, Silver Springs, Upper and Lower Allen, Lisburn and Mechanicsburg. Fire apparatus was stationed near every home in the mountain. A backfire was used to place a protective ring around the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richside which was threatened for a time.

GEORGE SPAHR WINS TRACTOR DRIVING TEST

George Spahr, East Berlin High School student, won the annual Area FFA Tractor Driving contest Saturday at Biglerville.

Second place was won by LeRoy Martin, Gettysburg. Lee Wingert, St. Thomas, was third; Harold Johnson, Fannett-Metal, fourth; Paul Nicarry, Chambersburg, fifth and Melvin Manahan, Biglerville, sixth.

The students competed over a course laid out by the Biglerville FFA students under the direction of the agricultural education advisors of the Biglerville High School, John White and Cecil Snyder.

Soil Results Not Complete

Richard C. Lighter, supervisor of agricultural education for the two counties, was in charge of the judging for the tractor driving event.

Points were scored against the drivers for each failure to observe safety rules, each infringement of driving regulations and each error in operation. Deviations of a half inch or more from "perfection" in backing, hitching to a manure spreader, driving through an obstacle course and backing the spreader back into a stall all counted as points against the drivers. The winner had 195 points against him.

Twenty-four students participated in a soils judging contest held at the same time at Biglerville, but the winners were not immediately named pending a compilation of the scores. The students traveled to various farms in the Biglerville section where pits were dug and the students, after looking at the soil, filled out questionnaires on types and uses of the soil. When all of the questionnaires are checked and results tabulated the winners will be announced, Mr. Lighter said.

Yost filed counterclaims against Sterling and Alert Myers to recover damage to his car.

Two Dissenters

The jury, considering all the various counterclaims, found in favor of Ratcliff in the sum of $12,500 and against Yost and Bryant Corporation. They also found in favor of Sterling and Albert Myers. The court had ruled that Myers was negligent and entered a compulsory non-suit against the Myerses. After the verdict the Messrs. Myers moved to take off the nonsuits entered in their action and this court denied. Yost and Bryant moved in for a new trial claiming that the court should have charged the jury that Myers was negligent as a matter of law and therefore jointly liable with Bryant and Yost. The court granted a new trial, limiting the issue to the liability of the Messrs Myers.

Judge Stern held that "as a result of the jury's verdict there exists an anomolous situation in that, on the one hand, the court declared that Sterling Myers was guilty of contributory negligence as a matter of law and that therefore he could not recover from the additional defendants, but on the other hand the jury found him not guilty of negligence and therefore the plaintiff could not recover from him and his father. Certainly he was either negligent or not negligent and his legal rights and liabilities should follow a consistent pattern. The court, recognizing this, granted a new trial in order to have a jury again pass on the fact of his negligence."

Two of the supreme court judges handed down a dissenting opinion in the case.

All of the first communicants were dressed in white, the girls with veils. The boys were led to the altar by Gary Long and Clyde Rohrbaugh, carrying lighted candles, and the girls by Patricia Stuller and Alice Redding, each carrying an old-fashioned bouquet. The pastor, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan, celebrated the mass. The girls' choir of the school sang as a processional "O God of Loveliness"; during the mass they sang "Jesus, Jesus Come to Me," "Jesus Thou Art Coming," "O Lord I Am Not Wothy," "Jesus Gentlest Saviour" and as a recessional "Lovely Shepherd of Thy Sheep." Group prayers by the First Communion Class prior to the reception were led by James Weaver.

Those of the class who took part in the crowning ceremony on Sunday evening were Roberta Cookson, who placed the crown of flowers on the head of the statue of the Blessed Mother; Margaret Mary Altoff, who was crown bearer; Rebecca Keagy, Loretta O'Donnell, Hope Sentz and Faye Thomas, the flower girls and attendants, and Thomas Gingrow, who read the Act of Consecration.

Those participating in the crowning were escorted to the flower bedecked shrine in honor of the Blessed Mother, where her statue was placed, by the girl and boy leaders of the morning. During the crowning the children sang "Hail Virgin Dearest Mary."

The Act of Consecration preceded the sermon by the pastor, who began his remarks with "The life of a Christian is far from being complete without devotion to Mary, the Mother of God's Son." Father Shanahan stated that "the crowning is a mark of respect, love and devotion to Mary, the Virgin Mother of Christ, which makes the world more appreciative of motherhood in general; this pleases God and helps the human race"

Novena prayers in honor of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception were followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the traditional hymn of praise "Holy God." The church was filled to capacity for both the First Communion Mass and the May procession.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain is tricky. It hit just right for the leading Binghamton Triplets of the Eastern League yesterday and an inning too late for their star righthander, Frank Lucas.

The Triplets gained an important 10 victory. Lucas lost his bid for a no-hit, no-run game.

Chico Rivera squeeze - bunted Fritz Brickell home from third in the last of the sixth to break a scoreless tie with Allentown. Lucas, seeking his third straight victory, went out for the seventh still not allowing a hit.

Allentown's Neal Hrtwick greeted Lucas with a solid single to right. The rains came. Three outs later the umpires called the game. Binghamton, the home team leading, was declared the winner. Lucas, the rainout an inning too late, settled for a one hitter.

Rain also curtailed Saturday's contest, Allentown winning, 6-1. It was called at the end of the fifth.

In other weekend action, second-place Williamsport kept one half game back by defeating Reading, 13-7, yesterday after losing, 6-5, Saturday. Elmira and Schenectady also split, the Pioneers winning, 8-3, yesterday and the hometown Jays, 4-3, Saturday.

Wilkes-Barre eged Albany, 8-7, in yesterday's opener of a scheduled doubleheader. The second game was suspended by the 7 p.m. Sunday curfew in Pnnsylvania with Albany leading, 4-3, in the sixth. It will be completed in June. The Barons won, 7-3, on Saturday.

PILOT CRASHES WITH PLANE BUT SURVIVES

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—In order to give the other 14 men aboard a chance to parachute, an Ohio Air National Guard pilot stayed with his C47 plane until it crashed in the Belmont County Hills last night.

The pilot survived, along with three others who elected to stay or were unable to jump in time, suffering relatively minor or no injuries.

One of 11 men who parachuted was killed.

Stayed With Plane

He was identified as Sgt. Thurl W. Starcher, 46, New Philadelphia. Five others are in Barnesville, Ohio General Hospital, none of them injured seriously.

The plane was carrying 11 members of the all-Ohio National Guard rifle team on a return flight from Friendship Airport, Baltimore to Columbus, Air National Guard officials said.

Engine failure was blamed for the crash.

The pilot, Maj. Charles C. Cook, 30, of Dayton, stayed with the plane and kept it gliding so the others would have a chance to parachute.

ARNIE SOWELL GREAT MIDDLE DISTANCE MAN

By WILLIAM A. SWARTWORTH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Young Arnie Sowell, a frail-looking lad with terrific stamina and quicksilver in his heels, is fast developing into one of the top middle distance runners in track history.

Just turned 20, the Pitt flash has yet to reach his peak. But already he's chalked up some spectacular times.

The latest was an amazing although unofficial clocking of :45.4 for his quarter-mile anchor leg of the mile relay in a meet here Saturday in which Pitt, Army and Ohio State competed.

One Of Fastest Ever

Ohio State's Meade Burnett, no slouch as a runner, had a 10 to 15-yard start on Sowell. But the lithe Pitt Negro caught him on the final turn and won by five yards.

It was one of the fastest quarter miles ever run. However, it meant nothing as far as records are concerned because relay runners have a flying start and no official times are kept.

The world mark for the 440 is 56 seconds flat, set by Herb McKenley in 1948 at Berkeley, Calif.

What made Arnie's feat more remarkable was that it came after he had competed in three other events.

Won Other Events

He won the individual quarter-mile in :48.2, running only hard enough to win the 880 ni 1:55.5; and placed second in the broad jump with a leap of 23 feet 2⅞ inches.

"My lucky day, I guess," was the way Sowell summed it up. As reticent off the track as he is speedy on it, Sowell had little more to say. He lets his record speak for him.

His coach, Carl Olson, expects great things of him. Olson, who says frankly that he doesn't know Sowell's best distance still calls him the world's "greatest half miler."

MOTHERS ARE

grace before meals, in remembrance of the Maker of us all. A popular slogan a few years ago was that the family that prays together stays together. What more fitting way could there be to remember Mother's Day then by these remembrances?"

GHS Choir Sings

Nearly 100 persons attended the Elks' service. Fred G. Pfeffer gave "A Tribute to Mother." He quoted Lincoln's saying that "Whatever I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my mother," and concluded: "Let us link a chain to the sweetest, strongest, most forceful word in the English language—to mother!"

The Gettysburg High School Choir, directed by Paul W. Grove, sang "Where in the World But in America," by Rowell, Waring and Dolph; "Mother," by Morse; "Sing and Rejoice," by James, and "The Lord's Prayer," music by Malotte, with Joyce Kendlehart as soloist.

The Elks honored "Mother" by means of a special ritual at the observance. Those officers participating were Exalted Ruler Kenneth R. Dengler, Esquire Charles R. Rupp Jr., Esteemed Lecturing Knight William C. Kuhn, Esteemed Loyal Knight J. Russell Kane; Esteemed Leading Knight C. David McCullough, and Chaplain James G. Warren.

The Mother's Day Committee consisted of Mr. McCullough, Richard L. Fox, John W. Fry, Raymond E. Menges, Donald E. Myers, Mr. Pfeffer, and Arthur Phiel Jr. Carnations were given to the guests, a red one for those whose mothers are living and a white one for those whose mothes are deceased.

NATO RECEIVES WEST GERMANY

PARIS (AP)—The North Atlantic Council welcomed West Germany today as its 15th member in the Western alliance against the threat of Communist aggression.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer took his place at the NATO council table for the first time in a public session in the Palais de Chaillot. The top NATO group opened a three-day session in problems of Western European defense and other issues of global import.

For the 79-year-old West German statesman the ceremony marked a culminating stage in his long and difficult campaign to enroll his countrymen as an equal partner in the ranks of the free world's democracies.

Replying to the welcoming speeches, Adenauer pledged his countrymen in the cause of world peace and freedom.

Referring to World War II, the chancellor said the German people "have paid harshly for the horrors which were committed in their name by blind and evil leadership."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Fire! The Foundry of Warren & Sons took fire on Saturday between 12 and 1 o'clock, from a spark lodging in the roof. For a short time the destruction of the building appeared almost inevitable, involving, of course, many others in the vicinity. By the active exertions of a number of our citizens who were promptly on the spot, the fire was checked, with the loss of a portion of the roof.

Another And More Destructive Fire! On Saturday night, between 9 and 10 o'clock, the startling cry of "Fire" again resounded through our streets. Flames were discovered issuing from the large brick barn attached to the "Franklin House" of Mr. McClellan, and in close proximity to the Hotel. In a few moments it was in a blaze, which rendered all attempts to save it useless, as it had a large quantity of hay and straw in it. The stables of Robert G. M'Creary and J. B. McPherson, Esqrs. immediately took fire and were also destroyed. The large stabling attached to the Globe Inn was several times on fire, and although the gable was burnt, yet by the unremitting exertions of our citizens, the buliding was saved. Had it not been the destruction of a large part of the town was inevitable. The roofs of the dwellings of Mr. McCreary and Mr. McPherson, and the Public Offices and the "Franklin House" were several times on fire, but were saved. Where all so manfully did their duty, we ought scarcely to discriminate, yet it is felt due to say that the active and daring energy of Mr. James Rowser, in leaping from roof, to roof, with water, and extinguished the flames, has excited very general approbation.

Our citizens deserve great credit, and it shows that we have a noble set of citizen firemen.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Pennsylvania College — The annual catalogue of this institution for 1879-'80 has been laid on our table, and makes a good showing. Ten students recently entered at the beginning of the third term. The total number of students catalogued is 140 — Seniors 18, Juniors 16, Sophomores 28, Freshmen 32, Special 5, Preparatories 44. The college is manned by a full corps of competent professors and instructors —is provided with first-class laboratories, valuable libraries, &c., and in the whole range of college instruction ranks with the best institutions of the country. With new colleges springing up year by year, contesting the territory from which Pennsylvania College drew its earlier patronage, the latter continues to hold its own, and today has a better outlook than at any previous period of history.

In 1882 the college will celebrate the semi-centennial anniversary of its founding, and extensive arrangements are being made for the occasion. It will include the publication of a Memorial volume, giving the record of the college and its work, biographical sketches of Professors, prominent Alumni, &c. Prof. E. S. Breidenbaugh is chairman of the committee of arrangements, to whom all communications in regard to the semi-centennial should be addressed.

The Republicans of Hagerstown in electing delegates to the county convention, had a spirited contest on the Presidency, the Blaine men running a distinctive Blaine ticket and carrying it by decisive majorities. Among the delegates elected are J. McPherson Scott and John L. Bikle — the latter a brother of Prof. Bikle, of Pennsylvania College.

Local Items: A supposed mad dog was killed some time ago in Abbottstown. Among the animals bitten by the dog were four hogs at Allen Hartman's mill. The hogs passed into the possession of Milton Hildebrand, Abbottstown. On Sunday week Mr. H. found one of them suffering from symptoms of hydrophobia and had all the hogs killed.

Look Out Boys! — Burgess Bayly and Policeman Culp have determined to break up profanity, drunkenness and indecent remarks and behavior, on the public streets. Last week five persons were arrested on these charges — three committed to the lock-up for 24 hours on bread and water, and two discharged with a reprimand and warning as to the future. There have been complaints on the part of citizens, and we are glad to know that the authorities mean business.

Accidents, — On the 20th of April, while Miss Maria Sipling, a maiden lady, living with her brother, Mr. Peter Sipling, near Abbottstown, was walking from the barn to the house, she fell accidentally, fracturing one of the bones of the right fore-arm.

On Friday of last week, Master Charles Fissel, son of Mrs. George Fissel, was playing with some boys in Mr. Sebastian Wise's woods, in York County, near Abbottstown, when he fell from a log, fracturing a bone in his right fore-arm.

On Sunday evening, while Master George Null, living with Mr. James Morrison, near Abbottstown was cutting wood, he made a mis-cut and gashed his foot in a frightful manner, almost severing the great-toe from the foot.—Herald

Today's Talk

ON SEEING THINGS

What an art it is to see things in their honest light. The American painter, Robert Henri, was a wonderful artist, but a philosopher as well. He used to give talks to his pupils. Many years ago one of them gathered them together from notes and had a book published called "The Art Spirit." It is one of the most inspiring books in my library.

This is what Henri once said, as quoted in his book: "When you saw the thing and it looked beautiful to you, you saw it beautifully. Paint it as it looked then."

When I read that interesting statement I whispered to myself why couldn't we look upon our new acquaintances and friends like that? If we first saw them as beautiful and fine, then always believe them as such. How many more friends we would then have, and how much longer we would keep those who have been with us for some time, for if there is anything essential to life it is friends.

Anything that is beautiful is worth seeing many times, for every time it is assomething new. I could visit the Grand Canyon any number of times and see something new, colorful, dramatic and fabulous. It's the same with a place you have learned to love and where you have been happy. Each return endears it to you. I like to think of those beloved, who are no longer here in life, as I last saw them. I had much rather recall a smile than a frown!

We all see everything differently than others, and differently to us at each visit. After pasing something interesting, how much can we recall? I have read a book that impressed me many years ago only to read it again and recall little of my first reading.

The artist puts something of himself into his drawing, etching or painting. He sees with his pencil, etching needle or paint brush. The camera merely produces a picture. We would be better human beings if we always saw the beautiful and good in things and people!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "All-Absorbing Interests"

TEMPERAMENT

(Temperament is important to retirement, say psychologists)

If your temperament is gentle, some psychologists declare,
You can drop your business duties and enjoy a rocking chair.
If you know the world won't suffer, after you are sixty-five
You can settle down contented when your pension checks arrive.
If you're satisfied the office doesn't need you any more,
You can help to do the dishes and run errands to the store.

There are some who take retirement as they would a sudden shock.
They don't care for peace and freedom. They don't want to sit and rock.
If you're used to giving orders and the habit you can't break,
You will not enjoy the pension that is monthly yours to take.
But psychologists now tell us, when the business pressure ends
That the pleasure of retirement on your temperament depends.

In the city or the country you can slip away from care
And your wife will give the orders if she finds you in a chair.
She has tasks to keep you busy.
There's the garden you can hoe;
You can wash the car and windows, if an idle hour you know.
When you have to face retirement, you can have a happy life
If your temperament's adjusted to the temper of the wife.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS GIVE ABC ON STORY OF SALK PROBE

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is an ABC on polio vaccine.

Dr. Leonard Scheele, surgeon general of the U.S. Public Health Service, has urged that all anti-polio vaccinations be stopped. For how long? This is indefinite. Scheele says some vaccinations might begin again in a week.

Why stop them now? So the government can make a more thorough check on the vaccines turned out by five manufacturers. The step was taken after Scheele had been in consultation several days with some of the country's top experts in the field of polio and vaccination, including Dr. Jonas Salk who developed the vaccine.

Expresses Confidence

Of the five million children vaccinated since mid-April, 52 have developed polio and 44 of the 52 were given vaccine made by one manufacturer, Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif.

Scheele yesterday expressed confidence in the vaccine of four of the manufacturers. None of that made by a fifth firm has yet been used. But Scheele said there is a "definite" association between the Cutter vaccine and the polio which developed in 44 children after they received it.

On Aril 27, after eight children treated with the Cutter vaccine came down with polio, Scheele was reassuring. Although on that day he ordered all Cutter vaccine withdrawn from use, he said:

No Reason For Suspension

"There is no reason to suspect that vaccination itself caused the polio. The action in this one instance does not indicate even that the batches of vaccine which were used were in any way faulty."

Yesterday, after noting a "definite" association between the Cutter vaccine and polio in the children who received it, Scheele said the Cutter product will remain suspended until the connection, if any, is established.

On April 12 announcement was made that Dr. Salks vaccine, widely tested in 1954, was 60 to 90 per cent successful in preventing polio. That test was sponsored and paid for by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Why Not Earlier Check

In the belief the test would be successful, the foundation arranged with the pharmaceutical companies to go ahead and manufacture vaccine to be held for distribution if the test turned out all right.

Immediately after the April 12 announcement, the manufacturers turned the vaccine loose with government approval.

Since the government is going to make a thorough check of the vaccine now, why didn't it check thoroughly before the manufacturers released any of it? A spokesman for the public health service gave some reasons:

1. These firms were experienced in making it, since they had made it last year, and last year the government had checked them thoroughly, in the successful 1954 test; 2. everyone, government and doctors, has more knowledge now, and so on.

Urgency an Element

Actually, according to Basil O'Connor, head of the polio foundation, only two of the five manufacturers now making vaccine made the vaccine used in last year's test. They were Eli Lilly and Co. and the Parke-Davis Co. O'Connor said last night Cutter made none of the 1954 test vaccine.

Probably the more accurate reason why the government didn't mak a completely thorough check on the vaccine distributed this year came from officials of the National Istitutes of Health, which is part of the public health service. On April 1 they said:

Ordinarily the government would make its own test samples but because of the urgency of getting the vaccine into distribution, it was relying primarily on protocols from manufacturers.

Government

less there is a "direct order" not to do so. "We have ample evidence that the vaccine we have used is safe and effective," he said.

Scheele's announcement included a report that the number of children developing polio after vaccination had risen to 52, with 50 of the cases paralytic. The surgeon general said 44 of the children had been inoculated with vaccine made by the Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Clif., before Cutter's output was recalled April 27.

Cutter Product Suspended

Scheele said there is a "definite" but unexplained association between the use of "the Cutter vaccine and the few cases of" polio which followed it, and the Cutter product "will remain suspended" until the cause is found.

But he added:

"The incidence of paralytic polio among vaccinated children, other than those who received the Cutter vaccine, has been only one in almost 700,000. This corresponds to the expected natural occurrence of poliomyelitis among these children at this time of the year.

"So, simply in statistical terms, there is every reason to believe the product of the other manufacturers is safe."

Meantime, he said, "a great deal of new information" has been developed on safety techniques. And so—on the advice of a top level scientific panel with Dr. Jonas E. Salk among its members—he ordered a factory-by-factory reappraisal of production methods.

BUDGET BATTLE RENEWED TODAY

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania General Assembly, now in the 5th month of its 1955 session, took up the tax budget battle again today with no solution in sight between the contending forces.

This is the situation, indicating a long drawn out fight before the tax issue reaches a climax:

1. The Democratic - controlled House Appropriations Committee resumes hearings tomorrow on its item-by-item study of the state's 1¾ billion dollar budget for the 1955-57 biennium. The hearings are expected to last several more weeks.

2. After that the House Ways and Means Committee will conduct separate hearings into Gov. George M. Leader's proposed 500 million dollar tax program. It is built around a classified income tax with rates ranging from one per cent on wages and salaries to six per cent on various types of investment revenue.

3. The Republican-controlled Senate has indicated that separate hearings will be held by that branch on the proposed budget. GOP leaders claim more than 100 millions can be pared from it. The administration has challenged budget critics to point out where cuts may be made.

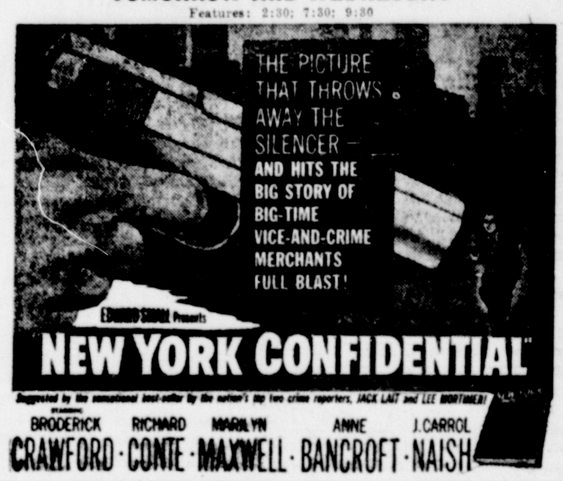

On another assembly front, the highly controversial Laurelton State Village investigation is expected to reach the report writing state.

Bullets Blank Diplomats 9-0 For Eighth Victory; Dickinson Here Wednesday

Johnny Schleicher, sophomore right-hander, tossed a five-hitter at Franklin and Marshall Saturday afternoon as the Gettysburg College baseball team blanked the Diplomats 9-0.

The victory boosted the Bullets' record to 8-2-1. They face three games this week. Dickinson plays here Wednesday, Lebanon Valley on Thursday and on Saturday Albright will be met in Reading.

A single by Art Hendley, ground out by Walt Heidelberger, and a single by Ken Polak produced a run in the first inning.

Empties Bases

Three more tallies came in the third. Schleicher was hit by a pitched ball. Hendley was safe on an error. Heidelberger and Oakie Schalick skied out but Polak walked to load the bases. Bob Swenk singled and when the left-fielder allowed the drive to get past him, three runners scored.

Another run resulted in the fourth. With two out, Hendley singled and race the whole way home when Bair dropped Heidelberger's fly. An outfield error and singles by Schleicher and Heidelberger allowed Woodington to add another run in the sixth inning.

A three-run outburst in the eighth inning finished the scoring. Woodington walked. Schleicher sacrificed and Hendley drove Woodington over with a single. Heidelberger was hit by a pitched ball and Schalick walked. Polak slifed to right and when the catched missed the throw at the plate, Hendley and Heidelberger scored.

Derby Winner Owners Coming Back Next Year With Better Horse Than Swaps, '55 Victor

By ORLO ROBERTSON

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Rex Ellsworth and Meshach Mickey) Tenney, a couple of wiry ex-cowpunchers from the West, will return next year in quest of their second straight Kentucky Derby victory with a horse they rate better than Swaps.

And that is saying a lot for Swaps whipped the mighty Nashua and eight other 3-year-olds last Saturday in one of the fastest Derbies in the 81-year history of the turf classic. Time for the mile and one-quarter of the $125,000 race was two minutes, one and four-fifths seconds, just two-fifths of a second off the track and Derby record set by Whirlaway in 1941.

Ellsworth and trainer Tenney, close friends since childhood, shipped Swaps yesterday to Hollywood Park in California, where the colt's next big engagement will be in the $50,000-added Westerner on July 9. The Westerner is at the same distance as the Derby.

Have '56 Candidate

"Our 1956 Derby candidate is Like Magic, a full brother of Swaps," said Ellsworth. "He's a great big old colt with something to learn but we think he is a better horse than Swaps."

Willie Shoemaker, astride Swaps for his first Derby triumph in four efforts, stayed around only a few hours after the 100,000 or so fans had departed from the downs. Shoemaker goes back to work Monday at Golden Gate Fields.

Most of the other Drby horses also were on their way to other tracks. Nashua, beaten a length and a half, was the first to leave. The big bay from William Woodward's Belair Stud entrained for New York to await the Preakness. Mrs. John W. Galbreath's Summer Tan, a disappointing third, was to ship out for New York today with his future uncertain. He had a slight fever in his front legs yesterday.

Makes Strong Finish

"We ran Nashua's race," said Ellsworth. "We didn't want to but found it necessary when Shoemaker saw the early pace was too slow. We had to go to the front."

With a quarter-mile remaining, it looked as if Nashua was ready to make one of the famous stretch drives that had given him 10 victories in 12 starts.

But it was Swaps, with Shoemaker cracking him a couple of times with his bat, that made the strongest finish. Edie Arcaro, seeking his sixth Derby victory, also went to the bat but Nashua just wasn't equal to the occasion and was beaten by a length and a half as Swaps picked up $108,400 to run his total earnings to $236,500.

MORE MEDICAL TESTS TODAY FOR JOHNSON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission scheduled further medical tests today for lightheavyweight Harold Johnson to determine if he had been drugged before losing a two-round technical knockout to heavyweight Julio Mederos Friday night.

Two commission officials said that until results of the forthcoming tests have been studied, initial reports that Johnson was not drugged must be regarded as inaccurate.

Johnson, although apparently not suffering a damaging blow, was unable to answer the bell for the third round of the nationally televised encounter. The No. 1 lightheavyweight contender held a previous decision over Mederos.

Find No Common Drugs

Dr. Alfred Ayella, Jr., a commission physician, said the further tests would be to find out if Johnson was under the influence of a drug that could not be detected in preliminary tests. He said these preliminary tests failed to reveal the presence of any common drug.

Commissioner Alfred M. Klein, who termed the initial reports "off-base," said also that results from blood, spinal fluid and stomach examinations were not yet in the hands of physicians for evaluation.

Johnson said that shortly before the fight he ate an orange given to him by a stranger and that the orange tasted "bitter" and made him feel weak.

Dr. Ayella described Johnson's condition as "very good" but the fighter is still a patient at Hahnemann Hospital under constant police guard.

Meanwhile, two state senators planned to press this week for an investigation of boxing in Pennsylvania.

Griffin Fourth In Keglers' Tourney

READING, Pa. (AP)—Robert Griffin, Williamsport, moved into fourth place in the Class A singles competition last night in the 16th annual Pennsylvania State Bowling Championships.

Griffin rolled games of 232, 222, 189—643, one pin higher than Steve Nomo of Wilkes-Barre, one advanced into fifth position in the competition.

In the team event, Whitey's of Shamokin had a three game team total of 2,870, including a 75 pin handicap to move up to fourth place in the B team competition. Their final game score of 1,055 represents the new high game to date.

Cashtown's unbeaten baseball team made it three in a row by blasting out an 11-2 victory at Thurmont Sunday to take undisputed possession of first place in the Pen-Mar Baseball League.

Glenn Herring's homerun following Rohrbaugh's lead off single in the first inning got Cashtown off to a fast start. Herring also rapped a double and single. Del Richardson hurled for Cashtown and whiffed 10. He had a shutout until Thurmont scored a run in the eighth and another in the ninth. Jim Spence relieved Richardson with the bases loaded in the ninth. Cashtown collected 11 hits and Thurmont nine.

Three Cashtown players were hurt in the game. Johnny Wetzel suffered a possible torn ligament sliding into second base; Ira Herring suffered a lacerated knee sliding at third base, and Bill Bucher was knocked unconscious when struck by a hard hit ball.

A fine relief pitching job by Weikert featured Fairfield's 10-3 victory over New Windsor at Fairfield. He allowed but four hits in the final six and two-third innings. Yokum, New Windsor catcher, sustained a foot injury in the third inning when K. Deardorff collided with him at the plate. Deardorff was also slightly injured.

Blue Ridge Summit topped New Oxford 5-2 on the latter's field.

Union Bridge blanked invading Emmitsburg 7-0 on a three-hit pitching performance by Lee Shafer.

Cleveland Takes Pair From Kansas City And Keeps Loop Lead; Follow 1954 Pattern

By JOE REICHLER
The Associated Press

Maybe, as Al Lopez stoutly maintains, Cleveland will not equal its record 111 victories of last year but the wily manager cannot deny that his Idians are adopting the same formula that brought the American League championship in 1954.

Cleveland won the flag by holding the top clubs even and belaboring the weaker clubs. The Indians are atop the standings today because they are doing the same thing again.

Sunday's 9-6 and 2-1 sweep of a doubleheader with Kansas City gave Cleveland 11 victories against only two defeats against the four second division clubs. That's an .847 gait. Against the same four clubs last year—Washington, Boston, Baltimore and Kansas City (Philadelphia)—the Indians had a 75-13 record for an .852 percentage.

Yanks Beat Nixon

Against the first division clubs—New York, Chicago and Detroit—Cleveland is only 6-5 for .545. Against the same clubs last year, the Indians were 36-30. That's exactly .545.

The Yankees and White Sox stayed within two games of the Tribe, in a second place deadlock. The Yankees polished off Willard Nixon, who had beaten them six straight times over a two-year span, 5-0 behind Bob Grim. The White Sox won a pair from Detroit 5-4 in 11 innings and 1-0 to plunge the Tigers from first to fourth. After Baltimore had nipped Washington 4-3 with two runs in the ninth inning, the Senators bounced back to pound out a 15-7 second game triumph.

Brooklyn's relentless Dodgers defeated the fading Philadelphia Phillies 9-8 for their 21st victory in 23 starts as they racked up their second 10-game winning streak in less than a month. Their nearest pursuer is Milwaukee, 9 games behind. The Braves took undisputed possession of second place by defeating St. Louis 6-2 as the New York Giants split, winning the second game 6-3 after Pittsburgh won the opener 7-5.

Home Runs Decisive

The home run was the decisive factor in the Chicago-Cincinnati split. The Cubs won the opener 5-3 on four baggers by Randy Jackson and rookie Bob Speak. The Redlegs took the second game 4-3 on Hoble Landrith's ninen inning homer.

Al Smith went on a slugging spree, walloping three home runs in the Indians' double win. The Indians' outfielder cracked two in the first game, each with a man on base, and added two singles as Cleveland overcame a 5-0 deficit. Bob Feller, who pitched a one-hitter last Sunday, was whacked for five hits before being removed for Art Houtteman, the winner, Al Rosen's 11th inning homer broke up the second game which was forced into overtime by Smith's blast over the left field fence in the eighth.

Grim Given Help

Little Nellie Fox singled in the winning run in Chicago's first game victory over Detroit and accounted for the lone run of the second game with an eighth inning triple that was followed by Minnie Minoso's single.

Two-run homers by Joe Collins and Hank Bauer helped Gim register his first victory although fireman Jim Konstanty had to come to his rescue after the sophomore walked the first two batters in the ninth.

Outfielder Tom Umphlett led a 15-hit attack against seven Baltimore pitchers with a home run and three singles. The Orioles came from behind to win the opener in the ninth when pinch hitter Eddie Waitkus drove in the tying and winning runs with a triple.

Duke Snder's grand slam homer in the seventh, the fourth of his major league career, earned Brooklyn's Johnny Podres his third victory in four decisions. The Phillies outhit the Dodgers 14 to nine but left 1 stranded. It was the Phils' ninth straight defeat.

Warren Spahn registered his 169th victory and 37th against the Cardinals spacing 12 hits effectively.

Don Mueller of the Giants extended his hitting streak through 21 consecutive games with two hits in the opener and three in the second game. Don's hitting went to waste in the opener as homers by Dick Groat, Jerry Lunch and Gene Freese helped Dick Littlefield gained his second Pirate victory. Sal Maglie picked up the Giant victory, in relief, as Willie Mays contributed four hits including his fourth homer.

ARGENTINE TO BATTLE JONES FRIDAY NIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Middleweight contenders are beginning to dream about the title now that there is a possibility champion Carl (Bobo) Olson may have to give up his 160-pound crown.

The Hawaiian-born Olson gets a title shot at light heavyweight king Archie Moore on June 22 and if Bobo wins he'll have to surrender the middleweight championship.

Eduardo (KO) Lausse, currently ranked as the No. 7 contender, is one of the 160-pounders aiming to get into the scramble. The 27-year old Argentine, winner of 27 straight including 25 knockouts, will have to beat rugged Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N. Y., Friday night to stay in the running.

The two collide in a 10 rounder at Madison Square Garden. The 9 p. m., (EST) 10-rounder will be broadcast and telecast (NBC).

At Eastern Parkway

Wildcat Billy McNeece, an aggressive Islip, N. Y., middleweight, is a 2-1 choice to beat New York's Tony Johnson tonight in a 10-rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena (ABC-TV, 9 p. m., EST).

In the other television bout tonight, Isaac Logart of Cuba is a 13-10 favorite to beat another foreigner, Ludwick Lightburn of British Honduras. The 10-rounder will be fought at New York's St. Nicholas Arena (Du Mont-TV 9 p. m., EST).

PARIS PARLEY AWAITS WORD FROM IKE ON TALKS AT TOP

By CARL HARTMAN

PARIS (AP)—The Big Three foreign ministers awaited word today from President Eisenhower on a proposal for a meeting "at the summit" with Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin in Switzerland next July.

Spokesmen for the British, who with the French have been pressing for a top level meeting, said last night Secretary of State Dulles had promised to ask Eisenhower for an answer on the proposal within 48 hours.

In Wshington, Eisenhower's press aide, Murray Snyder, said he had heard of no communications between Dulles and the President on the subject but that he had not talked to the President during the day.

Adenauer There

In recent news conferences, Eisenhower has said he wanted assurances of Russia's sincerity before he would take part in a big power conference.

Here for the North Atlantic Council meeting to welcome West Germany into NATO, Dulles conferred most of yesterday with British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay on the prospects for Big Four talks and the Austrian independence treaty. West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer joined them last night.

This afternoon, in between NATO meetings, the Western Big Three were to take up the situation in South Viet Nam in an effort to pound out a united policy. Premier Ngo Dinh Diem, who weathered an attempt last week to topple his regime, has appealed to the Big Three to reject Chief of State Bao Dai's efforts to reestablish himself in Viet Nam.

American sources said Dulles has no present intention of seeing Bao Dai, who hastened here from his French Riviera home Saturday. Bao Dai contacted American embassy officials last week with a request to see Dulles. He also submitted a plan for settling his dispute with Diem.

Although Dulles forwarded the British-French proposal for a top-level Big Four meeting, American sources said the Secretary of State still feels the four foreign ministers should meet first to work out details of a German settlement and other European questions.

Should Eisenhower agree to the meeting of government chiefs first, the Big Three reportedly will send notes to Moscow at once proposing that the Soviet, British and French premiers and Esenhower meet. It was believed the West at such a conference would avoid Far Eastern questions since this undoubtedly would touch off Russian demands that Red China be asked to sit in.

BREAK GROUND FOR MEMORIAL

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — A jovial Harry S. Truman did a bit of digging yesterday—his 71st birthday anniversary—on a project that's been closest to his heart since leaving the White House.

The former President used a couple of shovels, both gold plated, to make an official ground-breaking start on the Truman Memorial Library.

It will be a $1,750,000 structure housing the official and personal papers he collected during more than seven years as President.

"Dearest To My Heart"

Dr. Elmer Ellis, University of Missouri president who was the principal speaker at the ceremonies, called the Truman papers the core to an expanded library and museum of items and relics "which in the next 100 years will come to light as bearing in important ways on President Truman's career."

Three quarters of the cost of the library, being financed by public contriutions, has been raised.

At a birthday dinner attended by more than 550 persons last night Truman called the memorial "the thing dearest to my heart"

PLOWING BACK PROFITS PERILS STOCKHOLDERS

NEW YORK (AP)—Plans of business firms to step up their spending for new plants and equipment could dash the hopes of some stockholders for more liberal dividend payments.

Prospects for much better corporate profits this year than last have raised these hopes high.

But now a number of companies are saying that the big postwar expansion program may not have been enough after all to meet the growing consumer demand for their products. And new mills and factories are being planned. Keen competition is also speeding plans for buying new equipment.

May Revive Old Debate

And so the debate of recent years over how much of the earnings should be plowed back into the business and how much handed out to the corporation's owners in dividends may be revived. This comes at a time when most companies have completed their original postwar expansion programs and stockholders' mouths were watering in anticipation of more dividend gravy.

Stockholders may have grumbled in the last 10 years because so many companies plowed back such a large percentage of the earnings. But the New York Stock Exchange points out today in the May issue of its magazine, The Exchange, that judged by stock price performance, the "plowers" seem to have been more popular with stock buyers than were the "payers."

Other Factors Too

It cites as examples: In the last 10 years Bethlehem Steel plowed back 62 per cent of its earnings, but the price of its stock rose 398.8 per cent. California Standard Oil plowed back 57 per cent of its earnings, while its stock rose 364.4 per cent. Goodyear retained 67 per cent of its earnings, but its stock shot up 355 per cent. Jersey Standard Oil put 67 per cent of its earnings back into its business, but stock buyers bid its shares up 321.4 per cent.

The Exchange then takes a look at some of the "payers." It cites: Loew's kept only 17 per cent of its earnings in the last 10 years but its stock fell 18.8 per cent in market value. American Telephone & Telegraph retained a like percentage and its stock advanced only 7 per cent in price. Woolworth paid out in dividends all but 33 per cent of its earnings and its stock rose 23.2 per cent. International Harvester retained 26 per cent of earnings; its stock rose 41.4 per cent.

The Exchange notes, however, that other factors beyond 'plowing" vs. "paying" undoubtedly affected stock price movements.

HALT POLIO INOCULATIONS IN THIS STATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Polio inoculation of first and second grade school children in Pennsylvania was halted temporarily today in line with recommendations of the U. S. suregeon general.

Dr. Berwyn F. Mattison, state health secretary, notified health directors in each county and 11 vaccine distribution centers to hold up all further distribution of the serum.

However, the only group of appreciable size the ban will affect is 47,000 Philadelphia public school students originally scheduled to receive their first injection tomorrow.

Delay In Philadelphia

"I've already talked to the Philadelphia City Halth Department and it plans to delay them (the inoculations)," Dr. Mattison said last night after receiving official word of the federal recommendations.

"In a telephone call from the New York regional office of the Public Health Service I was officially told that as a result of the special advisory committee report the surgeon general recommended continuance of the postponement of the program until a reappraisal of the methods of testing the vaccine can be completed," the health secretary reported.

IT'S ALL BUICK

for only $2,621.37* delivered locally!

2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster—$81.70; Radio & Antenna—$92.50.

YOU certainly can throw out your chest and call this strapping big Buick yours.

Because—as any comparison shows—the dollar difference between this brawny beauty and the well-known smaller cars is now virtually erased.

So if you've been holding back, thinking a Buick was out of reach—let yourself go. You can afford a Buick if you can afford any new car—and the price we show here proves it.

Buick Sales Are Soaring To New Best-Seller Highs

That's a major reason for the phenomenal success of Buick today. So much so, that production and sales are hitting new peaks to move Buick more firmly into the tight circle of America's best sellers.

And a companion reason for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of cars to give you a choice in any price class—the bedrock-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-roomy SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But pure and simple, it's all the automobile you get for your money that's winning so many new owners to Buick.

It's the extra pride you feel, the extra room you enjoy, the extra comfort you get, the extra safety you sense—from Buick styling, Buick size, Buick ride-engineering, Buick solidity of structure.

It's the extra lift and snap and ginger you get from Buick high-compression V8 power—and the fun and thrill of bossing such eager might.

As we said—if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick—even with the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflow† at modest extra cost.

So why settle for anything less than a Buick? Drop in on us, take the wheel, press that pedal, and see for yourself what a whale of an automobile—and a whale of a buy—today's Buick really is.

†Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series

DID YOU KNOW— —that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below any other car of 188 horsepower and 122-inch wheelbase? —that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below some models of the three well-known smaller cars? —that the Buick SPECIAL gives you more pounds of automobile than any other car at its low price?

Thrill of the year is Buick

Seven Students To Get Dramatic Awards

Terry Brown, Suzanne Harner, Joan Koontz, Patricia Long, George Snyder, Marilyn Spangler and Ronald Strevig, seniors, will receive dramatic awards this year at Littlestown Junior-Senior High School.

In order to earn a dramatic award, a student must have a total of three leads in either plays or operettas given publicly during his junior-senior high school years.

If a character has 70 speeches, it is considered a major lead. A minor lead is counted as one-half. One of the leads must have been in the senior high school year.

This year, Littlestown presented, "Men Are Like Street Cars," a three-act comedy, and a Choral Spring Recital.

Miss LeOra Held directs the plays while Mrs. Joan Wilt is in charge of the choruses.

It is normal for a child to be far sighted when he starts school says the Better Vision Institute.

In many libraries of the 15th century the books were protected by being chained in a fixed location and chains continued to be used in English church libraries until the early 18th century.

Although lichens are not now used as dye plants, they were so used in ancient times.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

● Card of Thanks 2

LEGORE: I wish to thank and express my gratitude to the staff of the Annie Warner Hospital and to my many friends for their many kindnesses shown me during my stay there. Also to my donors this is the only way I know of, instead of personally thanking you, for the many pints of blood you so willingly gave to me during my recent illness. Again I thank you.
MRS. RUSSELL LeGORE

● In Memoriam 3

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Mrs. Joseph Grimes, who passed away on Mother's Day, nine long years ago.

"I have missed her devotions and love
But I know she is happy with Jesus
In that beautiful house above.
I often think of you and speak of how you died,
To think you could not say 'Goodbye,'
Before you closed your eyes.
Now, Dear Lord, while my heart is yet bleeding
With the sorrow that death has won,
Help me at this silent moment
To calmly say 'Father, Thy will be done.'"

Her daughter,
MRS. RICHARD HANKEY

WOMAN IS KILLED

HOCKESSIN, Del. (AP) — An Oxford, Pa., woman was killed and six other persons injured, none seriously, in a three-car accident at the intersection of Lancaster Pike and Valley Road near here.

Killed By Train At Prospect Park

PROSPECT PARK, Pa. (AP) — A Prospect Park man was killed last night when an express train of the Pennsylvania Railroad struck him at the Prospect Park station.

Officer Edon S. Whartenby of the Prospect Park police identified the victim as Francis J. Walter, 50. Wartenby said the train after hitting the man stopped at the Ridley Park station a mile south of the accident scene.

Whartenby quoted the engineer as saying he saw the victim step into the path of the train on a bridge crossing Lincoln Ave., some 50 feet from the main station platform.

Mrs. Mary Ann Wharton, 51, was killed in the crash Saturday night. She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Clarence C., 52.

Roman chariots often carried homing pigeons into war areas where they were released to summon relief legions.

Man Like SWOLLEN BALLOON Due to Gas

Recently a local man said he was so bloated after meals he felt like a swollen balloon. His food always turned into gas. He was weak and nervous. But now he is free of gas, feels "like new" and says the change is due to taking SYS-TONE.

SYS-TONE is helping such stomach victims all over Gettysburg. This new medicine contains vitamins, minerals and herbs. It clears out gas, makes stronger nerves and builds richer blood. Weak gas-filled, nervous people soon feel better all over. So don't go on suffering. Get SYS-TONE—Peoples Drug Store.

School Newspaper, "Maroon And White," Published By Students

"Maroon and White," the newspaper published by the Gettysburg High School, is circulated once a month, as a part of the budget subscription or at the rate of 15 cents for a single copy. It began 35 years ago as a literary magazine.

All senior high students who desire may try out for either the business or editorial staff. To become a member of the editorial staff, one must be a member of the Journalism Club, and have an article published in two consecutive issues of the paper.

Each year at the end of the first semester, the Senior staff members relinquish their head positions to the members of the Junior class. In recognition of their services, the retiring staff members are the guests of the new staff at the annual banquet.

Quill And Scroll

The Maroon and White has an active chapter of Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists. It is quite an honor to be accepted for membership into this organization. One must be a staff head and in the upper third of his class, and must be recommended by the advisers to be admitted. The chapter project is to award a Maroon and White recognition pin to Senior staff members.

Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver Completing His 29th Year As Head Of Public School System Here; In Final Term

Serving now what he plans shall be his final four-year term as superintendent of the Gettysburg Joint School System, Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver, 117 Springs Ave., has the distinction of having headed the Gettysburg schools longer than any other person in the history of the public school system here.

A former assistant superintendent of the Adams County Schools, Dr. Keefauver became supervising principal of the Gettysburg schools when the high schol moved into the original unit of the present high school building in the fall of 1926.

More than a decade ago when Gettysburg became a third-class school district, his title changed to superintendent.

Saw System Grow

He has been administrative head of the local schools over a period in which pupil enrollment multiplied rapidly through depression years and war times and in the difficult postwar years when increased pupil population forced rapid expansion of building facilities and curriculum.

His administration saw the addition of the gyymnasium and north classroom wing at the high school and then the cafeteria-shop section. Now the school is about to put into use its largest annex that includes 11 classrooms and a 1,500-seat auditorium. The auditorium will be used for the first time for commencement exercises June 5.

There will be new offices in the annex for the superintendent and High School Principal G. W. Lefever will move into the present office of Superintendent Keefauver.

School Named For Him

An important step in the educational history of the community was taken within the last decade when the Gettysburg Joint School District was formed. This year sees the closing of the last of the one-room schools in the jointure. The Gettysburg Joint District, largest in the county, has more than 2,000 pupils, half of them in the junior-senior high school.

In recognition of his years of service here and as a testimonial to the high regard in which Dr. Keefauver is held by faculty and school directors alike, the new 22-room elementary school here has been named in his honor.

The Keefauver Elementary School, erected on a hilltop east of the high school grounds on former National Park land the school district secured through a trade, is the largest grade school building in this area and is the first school building erected here as an elementary school. The earlier buildings in Gettysburg either housed all of the school pupils in the borough or weer built for the high school or upper grades alone.

Is County Native

Dr. Keefauver, who passed his 64th birthday anniversary last December, is a native of Mt. Joy Twp. His parents were J. William and Ellen Margaret Conover Keefauver. He attended a one-room country school, Horner's in Mt. Joy, and graduated from the former Gettysburg Academy in 1911. In 1915 he was graduated from Gettysburg College with an A. B. degree and received his master's degree from the same institution. A few years ago Gettysburg College conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Science upon the local educator.

He has taken postgraduate work in both the University of Maryland and at Columbia University. He is a life member of the State Educators' Association and a member of the National Education Association and of the National Society for the Study of Education.

Active In Community

He is a former president of the Adams County Tuberculosis Society and has been chairman of the Court of Honor for the Black Walnut District of the Boy Scouts.

He is a former president of the Getysburg Lions Club, a member of the American Legion through his World War I service, a member of the Masons, the Zembo Shrine, the Adams County Shrine Club and the Last Man's Club. He has served the Masons as a past master and has been a high priest for the Royal Arch Masons in addition to having been a past commander of the Knights Templar.

He is a member of Christ Lutheran Church here and has held various church offices.

BUSY SCHEDULE FOLLOWED BY CHS FFA GIRLS

Activities have been the trademark of the Gettysburg Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America at Gettysburg High School during the year that is ending.

In October, three Seniors, Lorna Smith, Gladys Lawver and Yvonne Sutphin, and a Sophomore member attended the Region C conference at Cressona High School. These girls were accompanied to the conference by their adviser, Miss Eva Jane Schwartz.

During football games, the chapter and the Future Farmers of America had as a project selling snacks during the game. At the close of football, the girls launched a campaign of selling Christmas cards, gift wrappings, and stationery. As a climax, a joint Christmas party with the F. F. A. was held on December 17. Games followed by refreshments provide an evening of gala festivity. About 100 members and guests attended this party.

January 12, representatives attended the state F. H. A. meeting held in connection with the Farm Show. Fifty-one of the members attended. Following the meeting, the remainder of the day was spent at the Farm Show seeing the demonstrations and home economics exhibits.

With the approach of spring, plans were started for the annual parents' banquet which was held in cooperation with the F. F. A. on March 24. Ethal Jones, a Senior, served on the equipment committee. Jean Barrick, another Senior, served on the check room committee.

Seniors winning special awards and recognition were: The Betty Crocker Homermaker of Tomorrow, Doris Leist; The Chapter Homemaker Award, Lorna Smith, and The Junior Homemaker award was given to Gladys Lawver. Miss Lawver also won a tufted rug prize at the annual state Farm Show, and first prize on a braided rug at the South Mountain Fair last September. She was chosen by the pupils to be the Penney Store recipient of the dressmaking project. The dress was displayed for a week in the J. C. Penney Store at Hanover.

In April 21 the F. H. A. and F. F. A. again cooperated in having a skating party at Littlestown.

Two group projects included original radio broadcasts over WGET. These broadcasts were in the form of skits, written and given by the girls. Both were in conjunction with the daily Farm Program.

The last social affair of the year was a spring picnic honoring the Seniors who were leaving the club. These Seniors are: Dorothy Adams, Jean Barrick, Martha Clapsaddle, Ethel Jones, Gladys Lawver, Doris Leist, Janice Lescalleet, Isabel Oyler, Lorna Smith and Yvonne Sutphin.

SIX SENIORS ON BASEBALL NINE

Six Seniors are ending their baseball careers this year at Gettysburg High School.

Glenn Hartzell is the number one starting pitcher on the squad. Glenn is doing a fine job of filling the vacancy left by the graduation of Delmar Richardson.

Playing third base for his last season is Dick Hise. Dick plays the hot corner well.

Ted Hise is a utility outfielder. Ted has been on the squad the last two years.

The receiving end of the Gettysburg battery is Ed Kane. Ed is a good catcher and a powerful hitter. This is his second year as first-string receiver.

Phil Kennel, a first baseman for several years, is completing his baseball career at Gettysburg this year, also.

The lone veteran outfielder is Clody Spence. Cloyd is finishing off his sports career in Gettysburg High School this spring with an all-out effort on the baseball diamond.

Although fewer children of unskilled laborers go to college than children of professional men, about the same percentage in each group who do enter college go on to graduation, a University of Michigan study shows.

Keefauver Reviews Changes In Three Decades In Local Schools; Cites Problems For Decision Here

By Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver
Superintendent of Gettysburg Joint School District

Just 29 years ago high school pupils in Gettysburg were housed in what is now designated the Lincoln School. Work on the original section of the present high school building was being rushed to completion in order that the seniors might hold their graduation exercises in the new auditorium, which was to have a seating capacity of 625.

Now, just 29 years later, work is being rushed along on the third addition to the high school including many renovations to the original section of the building in order to complete a new auditorium with a seating capacity of 1,500 for the present senior class graduation exercises.

While the numbers in high school increased constantly over the years, the area served by the high school decreased. Attending Gettysburg High School 29 years ago were pupils from Abbottstown, East Berlin, Fairfield, New Oxford and York Springs areas in addition to the area now served. All these centers now have their own or other high school facilities available. In those days there were no school buses provided. Pupils got to and from high school as best they could.

Close 39 One-Room Schools

The organization of the public schools changed from an eight-four to a six-six plan, whereby the first six grades constitute the elementary and the upper six grades the junior-senior high school. This reorganization together with added building facilities made possible many changes in the curriculum. These additions include health and physical education, vocational agriculture, general and vocational home economics, art, Spanish, industrial arts and instrumental music, together with such services as cafeteria, school nurses, guidance programs and vastly improved library facilities.

On the elementary level many changes have also been made over the years. The 39 ungraded one-room schools existing 29 years ago will all have been closed by the opening of the next school year, and all elementary pupils will be enjoying proper gradation.

The new elementary school is a high light in the school building program in Gettysburg, for it is actually the first graded elementary building erected, all other having been built for high school purposes or a combination of high and elementary.

The old High Street School erected more than a century ago will close at the end of this school year. It was the first union school erected in Gettysburg, and from the records kept at that time one must conclude that it consisted originally of two rooms, one room on each floor.

Preparation of teachers has also progressed remarkedly. Twenty-nine years ago only about 22 per cent of the teachers in the Gettysburg area were graduates of approved colleges, and of these only one was teaching on the elementary level. Today 83 per cent of all teachers are college graduates, and and 27 per cent of all teachers have a master's degree. On the elementary level alone 63 per cent of the teachers have baccalaureate degrees.

The formation of the joint school systems over the past seven or eight years resulted in more building programs, not only in Adams County but throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, than had taken place in any period in history. Progressive school districts large and small entered in joint agreements to operate their schools in such a fashion as to assemble large enough numbers of pupils so as to make possible better gradation on the elementary level and to offer a more extensive program than would have been possible without unreasonable financial effort on the local level. As a result buildings outmoded many years ago have been replaced by new large centralized buildings with modern equipment and adequate grounds for recreational purposes.

A Look To The Future

Despite the progress made much remains to be done in the immediate future. The joint school system is only an intermediate step toward a more desirable and practical means of [illegible]. Because it is cumbersome to operate is not sufficient reason to warrant a change. It is also more costly to operate than a unified type — a merged or union district. A merged district would take the place of the seven districts now operating as a jointure. In the jointure every district has numerous reports to prepare, each having its own tax rate, its own secretary, and its own treasurer, and in addition the jointure has its own reports and its set of officers. All this means added expenses, and a waste of effort and time.

But, there are other benefits. A merged or union district would receive an appropriation which would result in a reduction of local taxes; the buses might easily be routed and operated to better advantage both as to convenience of pupils and in a saving of mileage.

It seems unnecessary, however, to enumerate these and other advantages resulting from a merging of small school districts. The state has adopted a plan to eliminate small school districts as being too inefficient and uneconomical to operate, and supplanting these small districts with units of organization that include at least 1,600 pupils. To accomplish this end without mandatory action the state is providing financial benefits to stimulate local interest. The district that refuses to enter a jointure is levying local taxes at a higher rate than would be otherwise necessary and at the same time ofter denying its children the school facilities they deserve. Likewise districts now in joint organization must be ready to consider the advantages, financial as well as others, and be willing to [illegible] the next step in the reorganization of the public school system.

The formation of mergers is more difficult than the formation of jointures, for the latter can be established by action of the school boards of the various districts concerned. The formation of a merged district will have to depend upon the interest and willingness of the voters of the districts concerned for support. This is the problem that now demands the attention of the public.

Ted Crouse, football co-captain, is throwing the javelin for the cindermen and also putting the shot.

Running the low hurdles and high jumping, as well as running the 220-yard dash are daily tasks to be completed by Rich Pennington. Rich set a meet record for the 180-yard low hurdles in the S.S.T.C. invitation meet this spring.

Eugene Riffle is finishing his last track season this year.

Coming out for tthe first time in his senior year is Bill Swisher. Bill has been working hard all season.

The recreational and social activties were as follows: a joint F. F. A.-F. H. A. Christmas party, a winter and summer jamboree, roller skating, basketball with the 4-H and other F. F. A. chapters and a chapter fun day at Caledonia in the summer.

MASK AND WIG SPONSORED TWO PLAYS IN YEAR

Two annual plays were sponsored during the current school year by the Mask and Wig of Gettysburg High School under the direction of Miss June Roush. They were "Our Miss Brooks" and "Girl Crazy." Both were comedies in three acts.

Due to the building program, the fall play "Our Miss Brooks" was presented December 2, in the high school gymnasium. This play drew a large crowd and was a success. Many of the cast and committees were Seniors.

The Senior class play, "Girl Crazy," was held in Xavier Hall March 11. The cast consisted only of Seniors. They were: Jake, Herman Smith; Danny Churchill, Henry Fox; Louie, Carl Westerdahl; Cactus, Cloyd Spence; Lucky, Tom Gormley; Pete, Ted Crouse; Lank, Jeff Langsam; Molly, Dolores Burgner; Tess, Signe Wagnild; Rose, Elise Scharf; Betty, Nancy Ramer; Janet, Nancy Neth; Laura, Sandra Wolff; Sally, Joyce Mehring; Babs, Jane Donley; Sam Mason, Robert Weikert; Eaglerock, William Swisher; Lieutenant Caddigan, James Singley. The committee members were drawn from all high school classes.

Many Initiated

Mask and Wig and National Thespians initiated a large number of students into the organization. The following Seniors are members of Mask and Wig: Dolores Burgner, Ted Crouse, Jane Donley, Pam Dulaney, Henrietta Filsinger, Thomas Gormley, Mary Ann Gray, Edward Kane, Jeff Langsam, Barbara Manning, Joyce Mehring, Nancy Neth, Charlene Patterson, Herman Smith, Cloyd Spence, Marietta Sauter, Sandra Strausbaugh, William Swisher, Shirley Temple, Virginia Wachter, Signe Wagnild, Jane Warren, Robert Weikert, Carl Westerdahl, Doris Witherow and Sandra Wolff. GRADUATION TO HIT GHS COURT SQUAD BIG BLOW

Basketball in 1954-55 at Gettysburg High School was built around a group of Seniors.

Being chosen as captain of the squad shows the worth of Jim Everly to the team. Jim moved up to the varsity squad this year and did a good job of rebounding along with his fine team play.

Dick Hise was another team player who concluded his basketball career at Gettysburg this year. Dick is the consistent type of ballplayer who is always in there trying. Ted Hise, Dick's brother, also finished his basketball last season.

One of the many players to be plagued with illness during the season, Jeff Langsam played but a few games this year. Jeff is the only man who received his letter the previous year.

Williams Top Scorer

Another Senior who completed his basketball last season is Rich Pennington. Rich was a rough rebounder, although he is not a big player.

Also hindered by sickness throughout the season was Bob Weikert. Bob played in just a few games, but always gave a good account of himself.

The Senior's top scorer was Ronnie Williams. Will was Gettysburg's offensive threat throughout most of the season.

Carl Westerdahl managed the basketball squad for his last year. Carl did a nice job throughout his managerial career.

"CANNON-AID" GHS YEARBOOK ANNUAL EVENT

The "Cannon-Aid," the yearbook published annually by the Senior class of Gettysburg High School, includes individual pictures of all the Seniors and faculty members. Group pictures of the other classes, clubs, athletic teams, musical organizations and dramatic production also appears in the book. Many candid shots are also featured.

The editor of the 1955 yearbook is Richard Hise with Fred Guise acting as business manager.

Jane Warren and Joyce Mehring acted as co-chairmen of the feature section with Virginia Wachter, Carl Westerdahl and Jane Donley working on the staff.

The sports editor is Cloyd Spence with Robert Weikert working on boys' sports and Elaine Wolfe on girls' sports. Mary Ann Gray is head of the art work with Geoffrey Langsam as associate art editor.

Sandra Wolff, advertising manager, heads the advertising staff composed of Dolores Burgner, Ronald Collins, Pamela Dulaney, Charlene Patterson, Nancy Ramer, Samuel Small and Doris Witherow.

The yearbook's typing staff was Doris Claybaugh, Dorothy Fiscle, Mary Herring, Signe Wagnild, Kitty Wenschhof and Marie Wetzel.

Photography was in charge of Robert Crane, Henry Fox and William Swisher.

16 SENIORS AT GHS HONORED BY NHS INITIATION

Senior high faculty members members at Gettysburg High School elected 16 Seniors into membership in the National Honor Society.

The students who were chosen are: Dolores Burgner, Jane Donley, Henry Fox, Fred Guise, Richard Hise, Geoffrey Langsam, Joyce Mehring, Nancy Neth, Charlene Patterson, Elise Scharf, James Singley, William Swisher, Signe Wagnild, Carl Wseterdahl, Marie Wetzel and Elaine Wolfe.

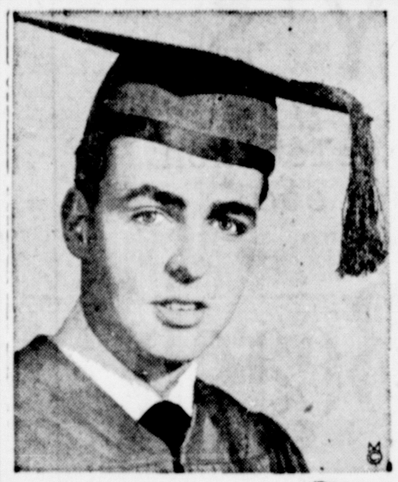

Scholarship, leadership, service and character are the determining factors upon which the students are selected. A list of students who are believed to be eligible is submitted by each Senior High teacher who wishes to vote. Then these students are checked by a faculty committee for scholastic eligibility. The teachers then vote on the qualified students on the basis of leadership and service. Then those who have a high enough rating are placed on a list and the teachers vote for the students they prefer. The students elected into the society are those who obtained the highest number of votes.

Inducted At Tea

At the first meeting the members of the Honor Society elected as the organization's officers the following: Fred Guise, president; Elaine Wolfe, vice president; Marie Wetzel, secretary, and Elise Scharf, treasurer.

The induction ceremony was held on Wednesday, March 16, at 2:30 p.m. The service was held in the high school library in the form of a tea. The oath was administered to the new members by Stanton Musser, a 1954 graduate and member of the National Honor Society. Fred Guise, president, presided at the ceremony and Marie Wetzel, secretary, called the roll. Entertainment was provided by Nancy Neth who rendered a piano solo, "The Lark," and by Henry Fox who sang "I'll Walk With God," accompanied by Miss Neth. After the program parents and friends were entertained by the society at a tea. Miss N. Louise Ramer, guidance counselor, and Miss Susan Wentz, librarian, poured. Robert Fidler and Mrs. Ruth Joseph, faculty committee for the National Honor Society, were in charge of the ceremony and tea.

The United Nations World Health Organization estimates there are 522 million people in the world, not counting Communist controlled areas, exposed to malaria and that 300 million of these have no protection against the disease.

Vocational, Educational, Personal Guidance Offered GHS Students

Vocational, educational and personal guidance is offered to every student in Gettysburg Junior-Senior High School through the school's program.

Consequently, certain characteristics of the progam are carried on throughout the various parts of the school and faculty. These are:

Study of the individuals through observation, interviewing and testing to determine intellectual capacity, personal adjustment, interests, social adjustment and home environment.

Cumulative recording of pertinent data about the individual.

Maintenance of health records.

Orienting the student to the activities, policies and the school itself.

Educational and vocational guidance.

Providing for help and advice on personal problems.

Furnishing occupational information which will help to enable an individual in making a vocational choice.

Group guidance is sponsored through the homeroom either through activities or teacher-pupil conferences. The homeroom teacher and the homeroom serve as a clearing center for all group problems.

Guidance Meets Differences

The classroom teacher handles another phase of group guidance. This is from the educational point of view. Here is administered individual guidance to help determine and meet the needs of individual differences from the viewpoint of the subject material and personalities being taught.

That phase is aided by the administering of personal questionnaires to all members of grades seven to ten. The result is that the teacher by referring to these secures information as to the family background, previous educational, vocational and social experiences of the student. Intelligence tests are used to determine the individual intelligence quotient. A reading test is given to determine the level of each individual's reading ability as well as to determine the specific reading problems. To each member of the Sophomore class the Kuder Preference Record is administered. The purpose of this is to aid the student in finding his vocational interest or interests through a systematic approach. By means of the scores obtained, the individual's attention may be directed toward occupational areas which appear to be particularly promising in the light of his preferences. In the eleventh grade the ACE Psychological and Subject Achievement tests are administered. To the Seniors is offered the opportunity for vocational aptitude testing in cooperation with the state employment office.

Individual guidance beyond the range of the homeroom and classroom needs is directed by the high school principal, school nurse and guidance counselors. The objective here is to meet the personal, physical, educational and vocational needs of all students. This phase of guidance is carried on mainly through questionnaires, testing and the interview.

In the educational, vocational work, the purpose is to recognize and analyze the needs of the student and then attempt to meet these needs within the school curriculum.

Help With Choices

This part of the guidance program seeks to aid the student in dealing with the following problems: A choice of occupational field or goal; the immediate selection of courses as well as the selection of courses for the years ahead; the selection of extra curricular activities; meeting requirements for high school graduation; meeting requirements for admission to college or other institutions for special training; acquaintance with occupations, requirements for a particular job, application for the job; recognizing the student's individual potentialities and limitations as these concern his present and future educational and occupation plans.

Counsel With Students

This individual guidance is carried on by counseling each student, grade 8 through 12, by use of the individual interview. By using test results, subject grades, subject teacher estimates and general observations each sudent is advised as to the program of studies and choice of subjects that will help him to meet his future educational and vocational needs.

The final decision of an individual's program of studies is made by the student and his parent or guardian, each of whom signs his name to a program card.

If a student desires to change his course selections he must present a written statement from his parent or guardian requesting the change and the reason for it.

The school is equipped with a Guidance Office. Here the student will find sources of information in written, pictorial and chart form that will aid him in his planning for high school graduation, education beyond high school and entrance to vocational life. Also here every student has the opportunity to contact the counselors for appointments, information, etc.

The guidance program assists graduates to become placed in jobs and offers students work experiences, during the senior year, in many civic and business projects within the community.

The ultimate objective of the guidance program is to develop the whole child so that the person will be more able and capable to adjust himself to living.

SENIORS WILL BE MISSED ON '55 GRIDIRON

Senior members of Gettysburg High School's football squad formed a small, but important nucleus of the team in 1954.

Gene Boyd, line backer and end, put in his first year on the squad in '54 and hustled every minute of it

Finishing off his fifth year as a Gettysburg guard was Bill Bushman. Bill played defensive guard much of the time last season and was a rugged defender all the way. Three of Bill's years were spent in Senior High and two in Junior High.

Also completing his fifth year at guard for Gettysburg was Ted Crouse. Ted was elected co-captain by the squad which is an indication of his fine team play and his ability as a lineman. Crouse also spent three years in Senior High and two in Junior High.

Other Key Seniors

Alternating as defensive end on both the left side and the right side was Paul Evans, another five-year man. Paul put in two years in Junior High and three in Senior High.

Jim Everly became a fine defensive end during his three years on the Gettysburg squad. Playing left end most of last season, he was especially proficient in blocking and recovering attempted punts. Jim will be missed on that left end next year.

Another ball player who spent three years on Gettysburg's football team is Rich Heflin. Rich became a right tackle worth noting through hustle and determination.

Gettysburg's left defensive halfback was Cloyd Spence who was elected with Ted Crouse as the team's co-captain. Spencie topped off three years' work on the squad by turning in a fine job in the defensive backfield last season.

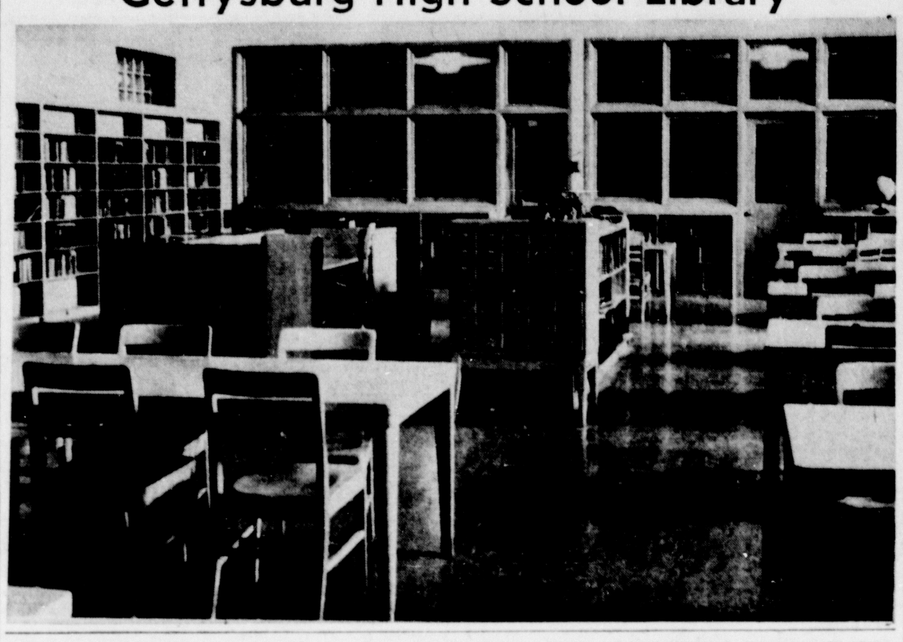

Fifth Letter In Six Years

Earning his fifth letter in six years, Carl Westerdahl did a fine job of playing offensive center and backing up the line defensively. Westie's six years were divided evenly between Junior High and Senior High.

Switching from fullback in his sixth and last season in the football wars proved the versatility of Ronnie Williams. Ron put in three years each in Junior and Senior High. Will played offensive halfback all season and played it well. A big gap will be left in the offensive backfield when Ronnie graduates this spring.

The job with the least glory and perhaps the most work, manager, was filled by Sam Small. For three years, Sam did a fine job.

Tough Sledding For Warriors In Major Sports During Last Year

A resume of the Gettysburg High School football season of 1954 and the basketball campaign of 1954-55 brings out the accuracy of the preseason forecast of "lean" campaigns for the Warriors.

Last fall, with practically an entire green squad, Coach Howard Shoemaker's gridders won three while losing six. Coach George Forney's cagers, also an entirely new outfit, experienced its most disastrous season in the school's history with a 2-19 mark.

Although having seven returning lettermen for the 1954 football season, Coach Shoemaker had but three veterans from the previous campaign who had played both offensive and defensive ball. For the most part the squad was made up of underclassmen whose presence next fall gives high hopes for a return to winning ways.

Lost Grid Opener

The Warriors opened their campaign by dropping a 19-14 decision to a big, veteran team at Westminster, almost pulling the game out of the fire in the late minutes.

A 13-7 victory was gained over Delone here the following week after which the Warriors bowed at Carlisle 26-6. Carlisle wound up unbeaten and was co-champion with undefeated Mechanicsburg in the South Penn Conference. Hanover trounced the Warriors 33-0 on the Nighthawks' field October 1 after which Waynesboro came here to gain a narrow 6-0 victory.

The Warriors' second victory came at Shippensburg on October 16 by a 28-0 count. The next week Chambersburg blanked the Warriors here 13-0 but the Warriors bounced back October 29 to score a surprise 12-6 win at Hershey. Mechanicsburg over-powered the Warriors 26-0 in the final game of the season at Mechanicsburg.

First Losing Season

Coach Shoemaker and his new assistant, Ray Ellis, are confident their charges for 1955 will profit considerably from last season's experience and will give a better account of themselves.

The 3-6 record gave Coach Shoemaker his first losing season since becoming coach in 1950. He has a 26-16-3 overall mark.

At the start of this season's basketball campaign Coach Forney predicted that the season would prove to be one of the most difficult in GHS history and his prediction was 100 per cent right.

For the first time in history the Warriors failed to win a South Penn League game, dropping 16 straight. They copped but two victories and eventually wound up with a 2-19 mark losing the last 18 straight contests.

Victories Scarce

The Warriors started the campaign with but one letterman, Geoffrey Langsam, a 6-1 lad. However, Langsam developed a blood infection which benched him for more than half of the games.

Throughout the campaign injuries and illnesses further beleaguered the luckless cagers. It was a rare occasion when Coach Forney could announce a pre-game lineup with certainty. Practically every member of the varsity squad was hit by injury or illness during some part of the season.

Gettysburg's lone victories were gained at Westminster 35-33 and over Delone here 46-33.

Dr. Walter C. Langsam Will Deliver Graduation Address To Seniors June 5 In New Building

By DR. WALTER C. LANGSAM
President
Gettysburg College

DR. WALTER C. LANGSAM

It is an unusual privilege and pleasure thus to be able to greet the High School Seniors in the Class of 1955 in Adams County and vicinity. As you know, your Graduation Exercises often are called Commencement Exercises — and this not merely because of tradition but for a very practical reason. After you have received your diplomas on Commencement Day or Evening, you all will be "commencing" a new life.

Some of you will join one or another of the armed services and thus start repaying the debt which every free citizen owes our beloved country. Some of you will enter college, there to begin a new career as freshmen. Some will go directly to professional schools, to start specific, applied preparation for your chosen life's work. Some of you at once will take up fulltime jobs as farmers, technicians, or other workers; and some, fulltime jobs as housewives.

Good Wishes Of Elders

Whichever of these may be your lot, you will carry with you into your fresh endeavor the blessings and heartfelt good wishes of all your elders throughout the county. Your parents, your teachers, your pastors, your friends, and your neighbors share your joy on the successful completion of your high-school course and on your emergence as full-pledged alumni.

You will, of course, forget many of the specific facts that you learned during your high-school course. That is natural; it happened also to all your predecessors; and it will happen to all those who follow you. But there are certain things that came to you in the past four years which should always remain with you. As you commence your new life, take with you what your teachers have taught you regarding the importance of faith in God, integrity in your dealings, tolerance and courtesy in your relations with your fellowmen, intellectual curiosity, a sense of honor and loyalty, self-reliance, the ability to think, and a sense of humor. These are the spiritual, and hence eternal, values that can and will place your feet on the path of service and happiness. These are the values that will help you remain stable in times of stress and uncertainty.

God bless you, Graduates of the Class of '55!

GAA GIRLS HAVE SPECIAL FLAIR FOR ATHLETICS

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization at Gettysburg High School which is open to all girls but because of its main function, athletic activities, most of the members are girls who have a special interest in this field.

The girls who wish to become members of the G.A.A. must be willing to submit to an initiation and be willing and able to give a lot of time after school hours in order to participate in the intramural sports which are hockey, volleyball, basketball and swimming. The initiation is administered to all Sophomore girls entering the organization and any other girl who had not previously been initiated.

A point system is used in awarding letters and numerals. Points are earned mainly through participation in intramural sports but also through participation in assemblies, community shows, etc. This year approximately 15 Senior members will receive awards.

Run By Cabinet

The largest project carried out each year by the G.A.A. is the selling of Senior name cards. From this project they raise enough money to have a party in the fall and a picnic in the spring.

The group of girls who run this organization is called the Cabinet. Members of the cabinet include the officers and all Senior girls who have earned a minimum of 68 points by the end of their junior year. Members of this year's cabinet were: Joyce Mehring, president; Elaine Wolfe, vice president; Doris Witherow, secretary; Nancy Neth, treasurer; Gladys Lawver, Lorna Smith, Shirley Temple and Jane Warren.

Senior members of the G.A.A. are: Dolores Burgner, Jane Donley, Nancy Douglass, Pam Dulaney, Henrietta Filsinger, Dottie Fiscle, Mary Ann Gray, Gladys Lawver, Doris Leist, Barbara Manning, Joyce Mehring, Jayne Mumper, Nancy Neth, Nancy Ramer, Mary Seibert, Lorna Smith, Sandy Strausbaugh, Shirley Temple, Virignia Wachter, Jane Warren, Doris Witherow, Elaine Wolfe and Sandra Wolff.

Important Role In School Life At GHS By Student Council

The Student Council is an organization at Gettysburg High School for the student body to further student participation in school affairs, to stimulate a better cooperation between students and their teachers, to establish higher standards of character, leadership, scholarship and school spirit to be achieved by giving the school citizen an opportunity to exercise his democratic rights and guarantee his privileges.

The council sponsors an orientation program for the new class entering high school, arranges for primary and general elections, conducts school dances, arranges Christmas assemblies, schedules homeroom parties and assists the administration in handling certain school problems. It has established regulations for sending flowers and cards of sympathy in cases of illness and bereavement.

The council has set up a scholastic requirement of at least a B average for membership in its organization. Homeroom representatives elected at the beginning of the school year; class representatives elected at the end of the first semster and the class presidents comprise its membership. The student body president serves as the council president.

Choose '56 Leaders

The officers this year are: Jeff Langsam, president; Nancy Neth, vice president; Dolores Burgner, secretary, and Pete Pennington, treasurer. The faculty sponsors are Miss Ruth McIlhenny and Fred G. Troxell. The Seniors who have served on the council this year are: Dolores Burgner, Ronald Collins, Henry Fox, Fred Guise, Jeff Langsam, Joyce Mehring, Nancy Neth, Charlene Patterson, James Singley and Herman Smith.

The council has held a Box Lunch Social and a Variety Show and dances. They also sponsored a basketball demonstration.

Keeping the school cleaner and purchasing a school flag for the new auditorium are this year's projects. The council has sent representatives to the state and district student council conventions and plan to send others to the national convention as well as the state summer workshop. The Chamber of Commerce, the Travel Council and a few individuals have cooperated with the Council in sending an enevelope of Gettysburg souvenirs to the National Student Council convention. Recently the Council arranged the primary and general elections and is looking forward to its annual picnic.

Peter Pennington has been elected president of the Student Council for next year. Ann Holoka will be vice president; Joyce Kendlehart, secretary, and treasurer, Jon Wagnild.

COMMENCEMENT!

The goal you've long-awaited! May your future be bright and successful, too!
